European Language Portfolio

Europeisk språkportfolio

Council of Europe

The Council of Europe was established in 1949 by 10 founding members, as an intergovernmental organisation that today has 47 member states. The Council of Europe, based in the Palais de l'Europe building in Strasbourg, France, is the first and most widely based European political organisation.

The primary goal of The Council of Europe has always been to guarantee the dignity of the nations and citizens of Europe by enforcing respect for the fundamental values: democracy, human rights and the rule of law. These values are considered to be the foundations of a tolerant and civilised society and indispensable for European stability, economic growth and social cohesion.

Europeisk språkportfolio

Europeisk språkportfolio (ESP) är ett material utarbetat av Europarådet, som ett redskap för att främja intresset för ett livslångt lärande hos Europas medborgare. ESP syftar till att öka motivationen till fortsatt språkinlärning och viljan att lära sig flera språk. Den möjliggör för språkinläraren – i och/eller utanför skolan – att kontinuerligt reflektera över inlärning och kulturella erfarenheter, fastställa kortssiktiga eller långsiktiga mål, utvärdera framsteg och dokumentera sitt arbete i ett dokument som äger giltighet i de flesta europeiska länder och har alltså på så sätt två funktioner, en pedagogisk och en rapporterande. Den bygger på skalorna för självbedömning av språkkunskaper från Gemensam europeisk referensram för språk: Lärande undervisning och bedömning.

Kunskapsynen kan kort beskrivas på följande sätt

- Inlärarens självständighet och egna ansvar betonas starkt med sikte på livslångt lärande.
- Kommunikativ kompetens betonas i första hand med inriktning på praktisk användning. Det är vad man kan göra på det främmande språket som betonas.

Europeisk språkportfolio består av tre delar

I Språkpasset dokumenteras språkinläraren vilka språk och hur väl hon/han behärskar och var hon/han har lärt sig dem.

I Språkbiografin planerar, bedömer och reflekterar inläraren kring sin inlärning och sina olika kulturella erfarenheter.

I Dossiern samlar inläraren ett urval av sina arbeten. Det kan vara till exempel uppsatser, bilder, skriftliga, intalade eller filmade redovisningar samt betyg och intyg.

I Sverige finns förutom denna reviderade digitala modell av ESP 16+ två språkportfolior

- Europeisk språkportfolio 6–11
- Europeisk språkportfolio 12–16

Dessa två portfolior för yngre åldrar är utarbetade av Myndigheten för skolutveckling. Allt material i dessa båda kan hämtas hem gratis på Skolverkets webbplats och användas fritt.

Information och nedladdning av materialet: <http://www.skolverket.se/sb/d/2164/a/12213>

Denna Språkbiografi, som överensstämmer med Europarådets gemensamma principer och riktlinjer, är en reviderad del av Europeisk språkportfolio (ESP), av Europarådet bemyndigad version nr 19.2001 (rev. 2004 och 2010).

This Language Biography, which conforms to common Principles and Guidelines, is a revised part of European Language Portfolio (ELP), accredited model No. 19.2001 (rev. 2004 and 2010).

Language Biography

The Language Biography gives you the opportunity to think about your learning and your experiences of language. The biography contains three parts:

I • My languages (p. 4)

gives an overview of all the languages you know and want to present in your Language Biography

II • Language by language (p. 5–8)

gives you the opportunity to account separately for each language, in more detail, what you already know and what you want to be able to do for different purposes. Here your language experiences are important, e.g. from other cultures or from different areas of work and interests.

III • Checklists (p. 9–31)

give you the opportunity to decide the level (A1–C2) of language competences that you want to enter into the Language Passport.

My languages

Here you give an overview of all the languages you know and which ones you want to develop further. All languages are important! Think about the following questions:

- Which languages do you master well? You can speak, read and write without major difficulties.
- Which languages can you speak, read and write with some difficulty?
- Which languages do you know only partially? You can e.g. only partially understand what you read and hear and cannot yourself speak or write.
- Which languages do I want to get better at and how do you want to work to achieve that?

I prefer speaking these languages in an everyday situation

I am bi- or plurilingual in the following languages, i.e. I can shift fluently between the languages

I have learnt these languages outside of school e.g. in my childhood home or with other relatives, friends, or as an adult, e.g. in a workplace

I have learnt these languages at school or on a course, i.e. all the languages I have studied for a shorter or longer period when I have had a teacher.

I want to continue studying these languages

I would like to learn these languages

I want to document these languages in the European Language Portfolio

Language by language

You need a copy of pages 5–9 for each language you want to document. There is also the opportunity to work digitally.

How do I work with this part of the Language Portfolio?

In My language studies and plans for the future (p. 6) you map out where, when and how you learnt different languages.

- You decide for yourself how you are going to use your language skills, now and in the future.
- You relate your language competences to different needs.

In Intercultural experiences (p. 6) you present which experiences you have of your own and other cultures.

- Consider the fact that it is not just languages that differ between different countries, but also everyday life and values as well as historical and geographical conditions.
- Language and culture belong together and both are required in order to master a language well.

In Language in practical use (p. 7) you reflect about the different contexts where you have used the language.

My way of learning and applying the language (p. 8) gives you the opportunity to reflect about how you learn language and how you can use the language knowledge that you have.

Intercultural experiences

Practical experiences of other cultures

Which practical experiences do I have of customs, relationships and people in countries or areas where this language is spoken, e.g. different lifestyles, social patterns, funny or embarrassing situations that I have ended up in, misunderstandings that have arisen, positive surprises...?

My own culture

What I have learnt about my own culture by contact with people in countries where that language is spoken..

Language in practical use

Work and placement

How have I used the language in a workplace, in Sweden or abroad? How could I use the language and what did I learn?

Subject studies in the language

I have studied the following subjects in this language. Where and in what context? How did my language develop by doing this?

Travel, exchanges, personal visits and informal contacts

I have had the following kinds of contact with people who speak the language: at home or abroad, correspondents, e-mail... What have I learnt most of all through these contacts?

Name

Language

My way of learning and applying the language

This is how I prefer to teach myself the language

Learning words and phrases, books, publications, films, musical texts, stories, reports, letters, dialogues role-play, project work...

I prefer working in the following way in order to learn the language

Alone, in pairs or groups, at home, under the teacher's direct supervision...

Strategies for using the language effectively

What do I do when I don't understand what someone is telling me, when I have difficulty making myself understood, when I want to find out information in a difficult text, when I want to write a more complicated message...?

My own responsibility

What do I do to plan my work, set reasonable goals, learn the language effectively, assess my own progress and results?

Working with checklists

Checklists, which are a part of the Language Biography contain practical descriptions of language competences. They help you see which competences you have in one or several languages. As a result you can see what you need to do to develop further.

An example from Level A2, Oral production:

💡 → Oral production	1	2	3
I can describe myself, my family and other people.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- 1 Tick here if you feel that you are capable of managing this task (Self-assessment).
- 2 Your teacher marks that you are capable of managing this task (Meeting a goal)
- 3 You mark that this goal is important for you to manage (Goal descriptors or priorities)

Suggested working method

1 Start off with the self-assessment scale in the Language Biography (p.32)

Create an overview of your language competences. What can you do in the language today? Consult your teacher if need be.

- Read the descriptors for one competence e.g. Listening comprehension, A1-C2. What level can you manage? Mark what you can do only if you are very certain that the descriptor corresponds to you.
- Continue in the same way with one or more of the other competences. You will not necessarily be at the same level for everything.

2 Working with the checklists (pp. 9–31)

Create a detailed picture of your language competences. Choose checklists which match your level.

- Concentrate on one competence at a time. You will probably need to use checklists for higher and lower levels.

3 Confirm your level in the Self-Assessment Grid (p.32) and then you can enter your competence level in the Language Passport.

Level C2 • ChecklistsWritten competence

I can write a well-structured text about complicated topics, e.g. reports, essays, reviews and articles

I can write summaries of non-fiction texts and literary works

I can phrase clear and well-structured written documents, e.g. an application or enquiry to an authority, a manager or a customer

Strategies

I can rephrase or get round a difficulty so easily that an audience is hardly aware of it

I can use all kinds of means to write relatively advanced language which to all intents and purposes corresponds to native language use

Language quality

I can express myself naturally and without effort and only occasionally do I need to pause in order to choose the right word

I can convey nuances through a broad register of expressions

I master idiomatic phrases and everyday expressions and I am aware of implicit meanings and insinuations

I can consistently and spontaneously express myself and use correct grammar even in complicated language

Intercultural experiences

I have a sufficient number of experiences of the language in practical use and of people and cultural characteristics of countries where the language is spoken, to be able to naturally and comfortably be a part of such a society

The descriptors in this checklist were originally developed for the Common European Framework and the European Language Portfolio as a part of a national Swiss scientific project (Schneider, G. & North, B. (2000). Fremdsprachen können – was heißt das? This Swedish version has been adapted to the Swedish syllabus for language and among other things, has been complemented with descriptors for professional language use ('marked'), as well as intercultural experiences

Listening 	I can understand familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly	I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear simple messages and announcements.	I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.	I can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar: I can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.	I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programmes and films without too much effort.	I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.
Reading 	I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues.	I can read very short, simple texts. I can find specific, predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and timetables and I can understand short simple personal letters.	I can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. I can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.	I can read articles and reports concerned with contemporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. I can understand contemporary literary prose.	I can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style. I can understand specialised articles and longer technical instructions, even when they do not relate to my field.	I can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works.
Spoken interaction 	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.	I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can enter unprepared into conversation on topics that are familiar or of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).	I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussion in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.	I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers.	I can take part effortlessly in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem I can backtrack and restructure around the difficulty so smoothly that other people are hardly aware of it.
Spoken production 	I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.	I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. I can narrate a story or relate the plot of a book or film and describe my reactions.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions of complex subjects integrating sub-themes, developing particular points and rounding off with an appropriate conclusion.	I can present clear, detailed descriptions of subjects related to my field of interest. I can explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.	I can write clear, well-structured text, expressing points of view at some length. I can write about complex subjects in a letter; an essay or a report, underlining what I consider to be the salient issues. I can select a style appropriate to the reader in mind.	I can write clear, smoothly-flowing text in an appropriate style. I can write complex letters, reports or articles which present a case with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points.
Writing 	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.	I can write short, simple notes and messages. I can write a very simple personal letter for example thanking someone for something.	I can write simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. I can write personal letters describing experiences and impressions.	I can write dear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects related to my interests. I can write an essay or report, passing on information or giving reasons in support of or against a particular point of view. I can write letters highlighting the personal significance of events and experiences.	I can express myself in clear, well-structured text, expressing points of view at some length. I can write an essay or report, underlining what I consider to be the salient issues. I can select a style appropriate to the reader in mind.	I can write clear, smoothly-flowing text in an appropriate style. I can write complex letters, reports or articles which present a case with an effective logical structure which helps the recipient to notice and remember significant points.
